

Name of the Department: Economics

About Department The department of Economics was introduced in 2014. In order to impart quality education to the rural students. Economics subject as per the Karnataka state Akkamahadevi Women's University Instruction department introduced a semester based system to the students. The department of Economics have has well qualified and experienced faculty member in UG. Several Prominent professors have worked in the department and in their paths we are running the departments. At present the department is headed by Prof. M.S.Langoti

Vision:

To deliver highly employable students with strong analytical skills, creative intelligence, entrepreneurial and organizational skills needed for solving complex business-, management-, policy- and organizational problems in a global and frequently changing environment.

Mission:

To generate interest in the discipline of Economics, among students by imparting sound theoretical knowledge and developing quantitative skills to analyse economic behaviour.

Facilities:

- Teaching aids,
- Computer Lab
- Subject teach to Competitive link
- Library